SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

The Department of Music offers several types of scholarships by audition:

1. Linfield College Competitive Scholarship Awards: for music majors, minors and non-majors
2. Music Achievement Awards: for music majors and minors only
3. Music Participation Awards: for music majors, minors and non-majors (the FAFSA, Free Application for Federal Student Aid form, must be filed and you must demonstrate need)

Linfield College Competitive Scholarship Awards (Audition date: February 19, 2017)

Competitive Scholarship Day is by INVITATION ONLY from the Office of Admission and requires attendance in person. In order to be considered for these significant scholarships, students must complete the Linfield Application for Admission and the Competitive Scholarship Application forms; these forms must be postmarked by December 1, 2016. Invitations will be sent January 2017. The Competitive Scholarship music audition provides an opportunity for Linfield College to recognize students who have had specialized training in music and can demonstrate superior talent.

PLEASE NOTE: All participants auditioning in music for the Competitive Scholarship Awards will automatically be considered for the Music Achievement Awards and Music Participation Awards. Students cannot be awarded both a Competitive Scholarship in music and a Music Achievement Award or Music Participation Award.

Department of Music Auditions for Music Achievement Awards and Music Participation Awards (Audition date: February 26, 2017)

This audition enables the Department of Music to recognize and provide scholarship assistance to students who demonstrate talent in music. Eligible applicants must have applied for admission. Participants who are interested in majoring or minoring in music will be considered for both Music Achievement Awards and Music Participation Awards. Students not intending to major or minor in music will be considered for Music Participation Awards only. Students taking a Competitive Scholarship Day exam in a department other than music are invited to audition for a Music Achievement Award or Music Participation Award the same day as the exam.

I will audition for: Competitive Scholarship Music Achievement Award Music Participation Award
