LEVEL I COURSES

NUR 200 Introduction to Professional Nursing I
Introduction to nursing as a profession; the philosophy of the Linfield College School of Nursing; the nursing process and selected aspects of health status of individuals. 2 credits

NUR 205 Introduction to Professional Nursing II
Introduction to selected aspects of the health status of individuals. Application of the nursing process in providing simple nursing care to individual adult clients. 6 credits (2 credits lecture and 4 credits lab).

LEVEL II COURSES

NUR 300 Therapeutic Nutrition
Application of principles of optimal nutrition through the life cycle and with selected cultural groups. Nursing care of multidimensional clients experiencing alterations in nutrition. 1 credit

NUR 305 Adult Health Nursing I
Complex nursing care of the adult client. Application of the nursing process based on analysis of knowledge from nursing, sciences and humanities. 6 credits (3 credits lecture and 3 credits lab).

NUR 310 Childbearing Family Nursing
Application of the nursing process to the complex nursing care of multidimensional individuals and families during the childbearing experience. Normal and abnormal responses to childbearing. 6 credits (3 credits lecture and 3 credits lab).

NUR 315 Childrearing Family Nursing
Application of the nursing process to the complex nursing care of multidimensional children and families during the childrearing experience. Nursing approaches to health promotion during childhood and adolescence and selected alterations in health status. 6 credits (3 credits lecture and 3 credits lab).

NUR 320 Adult Health Nursing II
The complex nursing care of groups of adult clients. Application of the nursing process to adult clients with multiple health problems. 6 credits (3 credits lecture and 3 credits lab).
NUR 325 Psychiatric-Mental Health Nursing
Application of the nursing process in promoting, maintaining and restoring optimal mental health across the life span in people with psychiatric problems. Provision of complex nursing care to individual clients and groups of clients.
6 credits (3 credits lecture and 3 credits lab).

NUR 330 Research Methods in Nursing
An exploration of basic research processes including principles and methods related to nursing research. Emphasis on developing abilities to interpret and evaluate nursing research for applicability to professional nursing practice.
2 credits

LEVEL III COURSES

NUR 400 Community Health Nursing
Application of the nursing process to the complex nursing care of individuals, families and high risk populations in the community. Nursing approaches to prevention of illness and promotion, maintenance and restoration of health.
6 credits (3 credits lecture and 3 credits lab)

NUR 405 Leadership and Management in Nursing
Overview of selected leadership and management theories and strategies, and their application to nursing care delivery in health care organizations.
5 credits (3 credits lecture and 2 credits lab).

NUR 410 Senior Seminar
Participation of students and nurses from the community in a forum with renowned nurse leaders and leaders from related disciplines. Analysis of current issues and trends in professional nursing.
1 credit

NUR 415 Senior Practicum (Lab)
Advanced Practicum in selected clinical areas emphasizing problem-solving, application of theory and psychomotor skills.
2 credits

Total credit hours theory: 31
Total credit hours lab: 24
Total clinical hours: 1008 (24cr x 3hrs x 14wks)