

LINFIELD GOOD SAMARITAN SCHOOL OF NURSING

NUR 318 Maternal-Child Health Challenges

Fall Course Coordinator:

Jan Selliken, office PH319
Telephone 503-413-7624
Email jsellik@linfield.edu

Spring Course Coordinator:

Lisa Aepfelbacher, office LH31AB
Telephone 503-413-7190
Email laepfel@linfield.edu

Clinical Days: Tuesdays and Wednesdays

Fall 2007 Clinical Dates: Part A – 9/4-10/24, Part B – 10/30-12/5

Spring 2008 Clinical Dates: Part A – 2/5-3/19, Part B – 4/2-5/14

Overview

Theory and practice of maternal-child nursing in a hospital setting. Includes the study of concepts of development, safety, communication, pain, fever, oxygenation, homeostasis, loss, ethics as they relate to maternal-child health. Prerequisite: NUR 311 Clinical Skills in Nursing

Course Outcomes:

- Provide nursing care to maternal-child families congruent with professional standards of nursing.
- Use research and evidence-based nursing practice to improve maternal-child outcomes.
- Explore ethical and legal issues affecting maternal-child nursing.